Scott Stapp, the frontman for the oft-maligned ‘90s-rock headliner Creed, known for the Grammy-winning “With Arms Wide Open,” details his rise and fall from a spiritual perspective in “Sinner’s Creed: A Memoir.”

Cyndi Lauper: A Memoir” tells the hardscrabble story of the eccentric singer/songwriter famed for “Girls Just Want to Have Fun,” who is now an outspoken feminist and champion of gay rights.

$26 at book sellers.

Duran Duran bassist John Taylor recounts his roller-coaster ride from nerd with glasses to eyeliner-loving, drug-addicted (but now recovered) 1980s sex god in “In the Pleasure Groove: Love, Death & Duran Duran.”

$27.95 at book sellers.

Sisters Ann and Nancy Wilson — better known as Heart — look back on the events that define their legacy as one of rock’s pioneering female-fronted, creatively autonomous acts in “Kicking & Dreaming: A Story of Heart, Soul and Rock & Roll.”

$27.99 at book sellers.

Faux fur stole, $79 at bebe.

Faux fur coverup, $49.99 at The Limited.

MICHAEL Michael Kors faux fur trim poncho sweater has detachable collar. $150 at Nordstrom.

Lauren Jeans Co. sweater with faux fur collar, $299 at Macy’s.

Kate Spade New York faux fur infinity scarf, $128 at Bloomingdale’s.

Intuition upright vacuum cleaner $242.99 | Kenmore | Sears

Motor is 20 percent more powerful than other Kenmore vacuums.

Beltless motor eliminates the need to buy replacement belts.

HEPA filter captures nearly all particles.

Dale’s Pale Ale Royal Pint

$3.29 | Oskar Blues Brewery | Find a retailer at www.oskarblues.com

Beer is packaged in a 586-ml “royal pint” aluminum can.

First beer to be packaged this way in North America.

Brewery’s signature beer is hoppy and hearty.

Autobiographies have become an essential for fans seeking a backstage pass to the private lives of their musical heroes.

“Cyndi Lauper: A Memoir” tells the hardscrabble story of the eccentric singer/songwriter famed for “Girls Just Want to Have Fun,” who is now an outspoken feminist and champion of gay rights. $26 at book sellers.

Duran Duran bassist John Taylor recounts his roller-coaster ride from nerd with glasses to eyeliner-loving, drug-addicted (but now recovered) 1980s sex god in “In the Pleasure Groove: Love, Death & Duran Duran.” $27.95 at book sellers.

Sisters Ann and Nancy Wilson — better known as Heart — look back on the events that define their legacy as one of rock’s pioneering female-fronted, creatively autonomous acts in “Kicking & Dreaming: A Story of Heart, Soul and Rock & Roll.” $27.99 at book sellers.